

| | |
|------------------------------|--|
| Glenn Chuter | |
| Current Employer – Role | Inghams Enterprises – Plant Manager |
| Previous Employer – Roles | NCI Packaging – Operations Manager / General Manager Howden Australia – Production Director Capral Aluminium – Production Manager |
| Qualifications | Master of Business Administration Deakin University Bachelor of Engineering (Mechanical) University of Sydney Contract Engineering – Post Certificate Sydney Technical College |
| Directorships | Director St George Rowing Club since 2017 |
| Rowing Experience | Competitive rower for St George since 2009 Vice-Captain St George Como Boatshed since 2017 Multiple state medallist in Masters Rowing |
| Experience / Accomplishments | Accomplished manufacturing operations professional with hands-on technical experience in operational improvement within diverse and extremely competitive business environments. A proven history of improved bottom line performance including operations, sales and P&L responsibility. Skills in leading business transformations with strategic insight, strong technical leadership and innovative approaches to problem solving, are supported by a solid manufacturing/engineering base. Demonstrated success in leading the development of people, standardized systems and processes in fast growing, challenging environments within packaging and food industries. A passion for delivering high quality service has provided the foundation for success in building productive business partnerships with key customers. Inspired and managed leading edge, innovative change projects involving financial recommendations, justification, negotiation and implementation which have supported step change increase business output, cost reduction and quality. |
| Volunteer / Community Work | Vice-Captain Como Boatshed since 2017 St George Rowing Boat shed Committee member for multiple years |